Mama and Fed Robinson have two mighty good pieces about cotton, elsewhere in this issue. Be sure to read both of them.

Folks, in general, don't realize what a mess this cotton situation is in.

I guess the government will start burning cotton before long.

Papa put a bale of cotton in the compress here, way back in the mid-thirties. When he put the cotton in the compress, the price of cotton was 5 cents a pound. It has been as high as 40c per pound, and right now about 30c. That cotton hasn't gotten better, the value of the dollar has just gone to hell.

I understand that two of the big merchants have abandoned the "stamp" giving plan. I don't see why all of them don't abandon it. According to one leading merchant, that "stamp" deal takes nearly $250,000 out of Grenada annually.

These stamps make merchandise cost Grenada customers and merchants that much extra.

For the past two weeks there has been five geese that daily lit out in the open field just north of the spillway. Monday, the first day of open season on ducks and geese, passed without those geese being seen. They are awful smart birds.

A couple of weeks ago we put some old school pictures in the paper. We did this only to fill up space. A lot of people have told us that they like seeing the old pictures, and for us to use more of them. We are putting some more in this issue. You figure them out!

Thanks to Dr. Bob Clanton for repairs for his daughter, Mrs. DeMarco, the former Miss Jewell Clanton, at Memphis, and Mrs. Bob Cunningham at Obion, Tenn., the former Miss Nita Brown Clanton.

According to Charlie Worsham less than one hundred citizens in all of the City of Grenada voted Tuesday in the General Election. What a farce!

From the way the whole country virtually when "democrat" in the election Tuesday, they will probably have to draft a Republican to run for president.

It seems to me, that before Mr. Eisenhower had his stroke, that we had the fishingest-golf playingest president in the history of these United States. He had to take a vacation from his fishing so he could go play golf.

We are indeed indebted to Hugh Ketchum for him writing up all of the school sports news.

Wren Sucoe seems not to come to town as often now as he did. His main buddy John Bradley being in Kennedy, is probably the reason.

We have plenty of nice, cheap Christmas cards again this year. We have them 50 to the box and 21 to a box. The 50's with your name printed on them are $2.00 per box; the 21's are $1.00 a box with name printed on them. Don't wait until late in December to order them. Come on in now and see what we have. If we can't fix you up, then you will have time to order-off for them.

Dr. Rayford just came in and ordered 300 Christmas cards.

Bill Cunningham, who made such a gallant race for Circuit Clerk, is now out at Grady Bullock Co.

Dizzy Billy Horton is about the most persistent salesman in Grenada. If Billy sees you seven days a week he always has the same question—"anything for me today?"

When you get your TB seal envelope, be sure to mail them your check back. This is, indeed, a worthy cause, and the Pilot Club ladies are doing a fine job.

It might be of interest to someone, that the Grenada spillway is cut off. The only person who knows when it will be cut back on is some engineer in Vicksburg.

According to Mrs. A. L. O'Brian, Brother O'Brian "is doing nicely" at Grenada Hospital.

Polio Vaccination Program Announced

Most polio crippling next summer will be the result of negligence - of failure on the part of parents to have their children vaccinated, according to the Grenada County Health Department.

A letter, addressed to all parents of school children, will be distributed through the schools at an early date. It explains the county-wide polio vaccination program which is about to get under way in all the schools and urges parents to act now to have their children protected against paralytic polio.

"Three facts dictate immediate action by the parents," said Dr. Clanton, County Health Officer, in talking about protection against polio. They are as follows:

1. Polio begins a seasonal upsurge each summer - such is the history of the disease. Protection must be given a child before polio goes on another of its hot weather rampages, if crippling is to be prevented.

2. For maximum protection, three injections of vaccine should be given, with about one month between first and second and from three to seven months between second and third. Simple arithmetic indicates that NOW is the time to vaccinate.

3. Mississippi's allotment from the Federal government for the purchase of vaccine which will be used by Grenada County Health Department, is expendable only up to February 15th, 1956, according to the Poliomyelitis Assistance Act. Unless advantage is taken of this opportunity, many children in Grenada County cannot have this protection against polio.

Grenada County's part of this vaccine will be determined by the number of parental request cards which are signed and returned to the schools. Request cards will be distributed through the schools within the next two or three weeks, along with other informational materials on polio vaccine and the health department's vaccination plans.

To the many parents who want to have their children vaccinated on a private basis, Dr. Clanton states that private physicians can purchase vaccine now for children (1-14) years of age. He urges parents to go to their physicians without delay.

The American Academy of Pediatrics, meeting in Chicago in October expressed faith in the effectiveness and safety of the Salk vaccine by accepting and recommending its use. Similar action was taken by the Mississippi Academy of General Practitioners in annual session in September.

According to the plan of the health department, upon receipt of vaccine, vaccination clinics will be set up in the schools with as many children receiving the first injection as

Fire Works And Air Rifles Are Illegal In City of Grenada

For a city that has an ordinance against the shooting of fireworks Grenada had a fine sample of disregard for that ordinance during the recent Halloween holidays.

Maybe parents didn't know that it was against the law, or maybe parents haven't anything to say about what their teen-age children do.

Maybe parents do not care what their children do so long as they let them alone. Anyway you look at it fireworks are getting bigger and louder and the more racket children make, the better they like it.

Just keep in mind, its against the law to shoot fire crackers and those attractive hard-shooting air rifles within the city limits.

We understand the Grenada Police have stated "You are hereby notified that anyone caught shooting explosive fireworks will be brought into court and fined for this violation."

Air rifles are also forbidden by a city ordinance.

Winona Runs Over Grenada By 45 To 8 Score

(By Hugh Ketchum)

Sparked by a trio of fleet backs the Winona Tigers unleashed a brilliant running attack to outclass the Grenada Bulldogs 45 to 8. Friday night at Proby Field, The Tigers scored in every period as they romped to their seventh consecutive victory following a one point loss in the opener while it was the fourth loss in seven starts for the Bulldogs.

Bud Knight, 135-pound whirlwind and his running mates, Bobby Stacey and Guy Caldwell, had a field day as they scored seven touchdowns and racked up 346 yards rushing. Knight personally accounted for 197 yards with his running and counted two touchdowns on runs of 58 and 23 yds. Stacey turned in three touchdown jaunts of 32, 20 and 5 yards and Caldwell scored twice on runs of 35 and 15 yards.

The Tigers scored once in the first period, three times in the second quarter, once in the third and twice in the final quarter. Stacey kicked three of the seven extra point tries.

Grenada was never in the game except for a surge in the third period when they marched 66 yards to score with Shafer Spence sweeping right end for four yards and the tally. The Bulldogs safety also came in the third period when Stacey was tackled behind the goal line on a fake punt play. During the remainder of the game the Tigers outcharged, outblocked and outplayed the Bulldogs.

This week the Bulldogs journey to New Albany for an important Little Ten conference battle Friday night.

Charles Ferrill Is Named "Player of Week"

(By Hugh Ketchum)

Charles Ferrill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Ferrill, 601 Fairfield Avenue, was selected as Player of the Week by the Bulldog Club for his performance against Winona last week, and for his leadership qualities in the practice sessions prior to the game. He will receive an appropriate gift of clothing from Heath Bros.

The 206-pound tackle is one of the mainstays in the Bulldog forward wall. He has shown steady development in each game, particularly in the last three outings, and came up with his finest performance of the year last week. Charlie is a 17 year old Junior in the John Rundle High School and will be counted on as one of the key men in next year's promising team. He has been a member of the Bulldog squad since he was in the seventh grade, and has lettered the past two seasons.

The New Player of the Week was honored in a Chapel program at the high school Wednesday and will be a guest of the Lions Club noon Friday. Other nominees for the Player of the Week award last week were End Tom Holley and Fullback Shafer Spence.

The Golden Rule

Lesson for November 13, 1935

LIVING is an art, not a science. Jesus did not come to give us a heavenly rule-book. On the other hand he did not live and die merely to provide us with tickets to heaven. For others, as for himself, he felt the tremendous importance, here and now, of this present life. He left behind him not rules but general broad principles for living in this world as sons and daughters of the Most High God. Jesus' principles were not the stuff of sort of thing that only philosophers can understand. His disciples, we know, were all men of limited education, the plainest of plain people. If Jesus had tried any theological gobbledygook on them, it would have gone clear over their heads. What he said could have carved on short tombstones, written on a postcard—any one sentence of his teachings. The one the church has nicknamed the "Golden Rule"—short, sharp, and in Jesus' own view very important—is alone worth long study.

"It's Too Hard"
Luke's version of the Golden Rule (6:31) is clear enough: "As you wish that men would do to you, do so to them." Words of one syllable, but what words! It is saddening to see how many efforts have been made to by-pass this Golden Rule. One kind of by-passers will tell you this is much too hard. Some very religious people have fancied that Jesus did not mean this for here-and-now, but only for some "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," sometime after Judgment Day. Other religious people have said that Jesus really meant to say, "You can't possibly do this—don't you feel ashamed?" Now we can be sure of two things. One is, that Jesus was to say the least of it, a man of common sense, an honest man.

And honest men do not deliberately tell their friends to do what they know is impossible.

"It's Too Easy"
An opposite way of by-passing the Golden Rule is to think it is too easy—that it is just a nice-sounding bit of advice that is not only easy to do but which won't do much good. For example: a little girl cries for candy. The mother thinks: What would I want her to do for me? Why, I'd want her to do as I say. So I'll do as she says—give her the candy. (And make her sick, of course.) Or again: a wife's birthday is coming, along Husband thinks: What would I want for my birthday? New power saw, of course. So he gets his wife a power saw, which she certainly does not want. No, the Golden Rule is not so easy as all that. It calls for imagination, for a wide vision, for a Christian spirit. It is indeed all too easy—for fools and slaves. But Jesus assured that his friends were neither fools nor slaves. The Golden Rule is something to save any one the trouble of thinking. It simply points out the direction in which our actions and decisions ought to go. It often means, not—What does this person want me to do, now? but—What will this person at last wish I had done for him? In other words, if we are to apply the Golden Rule we have to look at it in the light of eternity.

"It Won't Work"
Another way of by-passing the Golden Rule is to say simply that it won't work. "It is a lovely ideal, the world would be much pleasanter to live in, for all of us, if we could live by it; but we can't, so let's get on with the practical business of dog-eat-dog, every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost." Again let us remember that if Jesus had not lived by his own rule, every listener would have known him for a hypocrite and the Golden Rule would have perished in a blast of cynical laughter. It worked in Nazareth, it worked in the carpenter shop. To bring it down to our own times in America, and to take the hardest of applications of the Golden Rule,—loving your enemies. Will it work? Well, who are today the leaders in the War of the 1860's who are most widely and gratefully remembered on both sides of what once was a battle line? Lincoln and Lee, beyond much doubt. And these are the two men who most undeniably loved their enemies. The Golden Rule, in a life devoted to God and man, will work.

Grenada Iris Club Concludes Eventful Year With Meeting

The Grenada Iris Club held the last meeting of this year Thursday, October 27, at 3:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. W. E. Brown, with Mrs. Cora Proudfoot and Mrs. Selwyn Jones as co-hostesses.

Lovely pink dahlias from the garden of Mrs. Glenn Thomason graced the coffee table in the reception room, with colorful arrangements of roses and chrysanthemums from the garden of Mrs. J. D. Quinn placed at vantage points throughout the home.

After members and guests were assembled, the hostesses served butterscotch pie with coffee during the brief social period.

Mrs. Irvin Johnson, president, made appropriate remarks regarding the eventful club year concluded at this meeting, and expressed pleasure in looking forward to the new club year.

Following the business session, Mrs. Selwyn Jones, program chairman, presented Mrs. J. D. Quinn, substituting for Mrs. J. H. Oliver who was unable to attend. Mrs. Quinn paid tribute to the late Mrs. John King who so generously gave the club the use of part of her residence lot for the iris garden, and expressed appreciation to the women for their time and effort spent in making the garden one of the beauty spots in the Grenada area. In conclusion Mrs. Quinn gave a lovely poem "Things Grown Old."

There were 23 members present and the following guests: Mrs. Pap Hamby, Mrs. George Williams, Miss Tommie Hamilton, Mrs. Winnie Saunders, Mrs. Donald Sharp, Mrs. W. H. Felts, Mrs. Gaines Cooke, Mrs. Walter Wilder and Mrs. John Keeton Sr.

No More Smoke From City Dump

Grenada will no longer burn the garbage and debris from the streets of the city. The method used now is sanitary land fill on the 23 acre lot located on the back of the Yalobusha River.

The initial cost of this program for the first year is about $16,000.00. It will be less next year. Equipment includes an International Crawler tractor with bull-dozing on front. It scoops the trash and packs the same down.

Prior to this, Grenada had a bag of foul smelling smoke from the dump was on fire and the wind out of the north.

Soil Conservation News

(By Rex R. Blue, SCS)

New cooperators of the Grenada County Soil Conservation District are O. W. Scott, Duck Hill; Eddie Emory, A. M. Carothers, C. J. Worsham, J. M. McCormick, Grenada; and Jack Clanton, Gore Springs. These farmers will be assisted by the District in carrying out conservation practices on their farm.

Farm ponds have recently been constructed on the farms of Byron Hunter and D. D. Smith. N. N. Wright of Hardy is busy constructing a large pond on his farm. SCS personnel assisted in staking out and checking the ponds.

Contact work was started on gully control work on Supervisor Lewis Williams' farm this week. Gully plugs will be constructed and the eroded area mulched and planted to grass and trees to stabilize the large gullies. Mr. Williams will fence the area to protect it from fire and grazing. This work is part of an over all water-erated flood prevention program designed to check erosion, slow down run-off and prevent flood. Land owners and the Federal Government share in the cost to get the work done. Approximately two million pine seedlings will be planted on Grenada County farms through the district program during the 1965-66 planting season. Every citizen is urged to do everything possible to prevent forest fires from starting.

If you are interested in planting steep, or eroded areas on your farm to pine, contact your local Agricultural workers. Seedlings will be furnished without cost to farmers cooperating with the District. ACP assistance will be available to pay a large part of the cost of planting. There will be a number of vendors with planting crews available to landowners who desire to hire their seedlings planted.

Donald Sultan, chosen King of Farm Bureau, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Fred Sultan, attended Farm Bureau Convention, Wednesday in Jackson.

Andrew Whitaker stated in his column in the GCW week before last a startling fact when he said "See where in just a year or so, the foreign market for U. S. cotton will be no more..." We wonder how many people here in the south will read that true statement and begin to think about the problem seriously. This writer is no expert on the subject but here are a few additional facts about the cotton situation which confronts all people of the south at this very hour.

Our State Department has been trying to make some new friends for the USA in the immediate past few years, and we are for that, but to make these friends among foreign nations we have had to emphasize the Point Four Program under which we have shipped to foreign nations cotton seed, machinery to plant it and harvest it, sent men there to teach them how to grow it and market it and through this program such countries as Turkey has ceased to buy our cotton for the very good reason they have all they need plus. We sold Turkey a lot of our surplus wheat very cheap which our government had bought from American farmers, and this resulted in Turkey plowing up their wheat fields and planted cotton to compete with USA. Because of a very low tariff on manufactured goods coming in from Japan, Japan is now buying cotton from Mexico far below our loan prices and they make up cotton goods and sell them to USA at a price far below anything we can make them for because of our high scale of wages. For instance recently Japan sold in this country over a million men's shirts to retail at $1.00 each. In order to obtain government loans on 1935 cotton farmers had to agree to reduce their acreage 20 percent over last year. What happened? The good American farmer spread more fertilizer and the result is they have MORE bales of cotton than last year. We can use only about 9,000,000 bales a year, and right now every warehouse in the country has a capacity load and every where you look is a stack of cotton bales waiting to go into a warehouse as growers can't get into the government loan unless or until the cotton is accepted at the compress warehouses.

We could sell that cotton to many other countries but the good old U. S. A. is trying to hold down exports so that our foreign country friends can sell their first and all this is for the purpose of making friends and fighting the influence of communism. Poor old Uncle Sam is caught right in the middle of this confusion as he tries to keep American farmers prosperous and happy and he just keeps loaning money on cotton at rate of 35c whereas actually on basis of supply and demand cotton is probably worth about 25c per pound. Uncle Sam now owes about two years' supply and here comes a star bumper crop. What's the result? We if politicians on either side of the aisle you call it, are going to government to make loan which is actually to purchase on - continuing to pay about each year this country owes to the depression a little at a time and perhaps we would all be better off. But if this thing piles up higher and higher there will be a day when those broad fertile delta acres in Mississippi and other southern states will have to be planted to something else besides cotton. A magician will never tell how he does the tricks because he knows he couldn't "sell" his act if everyone knew how it was done. But good old USA tells all and shows all to everyone who wants to grow cotton, and consequently we have lost our world markets in cotton and whether or not we have gained any new friends across the seas is a debatable question.

An Ozark philosopher says: "It isn't the ignorance that causes all the trouble, it's the things people know that just ain't so."

JITNEY-JUNGLE RECIPE OF-THE-WEEK

FAVORITE FRUIT CAKE (white)
(Mrs. Sammy Bailey)

1 Lb. Butter — 1 Lb. Sugar (4 cups)
1 Lb. flour (4 cups sifted all-purpose flour)
1 doz. Egg whites — 1 teaspoon salt — 1 lb. candied Cherries — 1 lb. candied Pineapple — 1 lb. white Raisins — 1/2 lb. Citron — 1/2 lb. candied Orange peel — 1 lb. candied Lemon peel — 1 lb. blanched almonds slivered.

Cut the candied fruit into small pieces. Add nuts. Dredge with flour. This will take about one cup. This is in addition to the flour listed in the recipe.

Cream the butter thoroughly. Sift the flour five times before measuring. Add salt to the measured flour. Add the flour a small amount at a time, creaming in thoroughly after each addition.

Beat six egg whites until stiff. Sift the sugar a little at a time until it has all been added. It should be a creamy meringue. Combine these first two mixtures and mix thoroughly.

Add fruits and nuts. Beat the remaining six egg whites until stiff. Fold into the batter. Incidentally, don't think that we have omitted the baking powder by mistake. This recipe doesn't use it.

The original recipe says to line the pans with brown paper but Millie has made a modern improvement on this method. She turns her pans upside down. Next she molds aluminum foil over the bottom and sides. When it fits smoothly she removes it from the pan carefully so it will keep its shape. Next she turns the pans right side up and slips the molded lining into the pan. With minor adjustments it makes a perfect fit.

Fill the pans two-thirds full of batter. Bake in a 300 F. oven for 3 hours. This makes about 8 pounds of fruit cake.

United Daughters of Confederacy Announces Subjects For Essay Contests

The Mississippi Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy announces the subjects for the essay contests which are held annually in the junior and senior high schools of the state.

The subject for the junior high school - (grades 7, 8, and 9) - is "My Favorite Confederate Hero." This subject allows the students to choose from military or civilian life and to use true stories about unknown heroes of the Confederate States. It would be most gratifying if by research the student could bring to light some hero whose name and deeds might otherwise be lost forever. The junior high school essays may be from 500 to 1,000 words. The prizes are a $25 bond, $10 in cash, a medal, and an award for the school represented.

The subject for the senior high school - (grades 10, 11 and 12) - is "L. Q. C. Lamar, Southern Statesman." A Georgian by birth, a distinguished public servant of Mississippi, a devoted lover of the South, L. Q. C. Lamar needs to be known by every generation of Mississippians. By his devotion to the South in the terrible days following the War between the States he set a pattern of living loyalty that challenges people today. These essays may be from 1,000 to 1,500 words. The prizes are the same as offered in the junior high school essay contest. The winners of the contest will be the guests of the Mississippi Division at the annual convention in Greenville, Miss., in May, 1956.

These contests are sponsored by the United Daughters of the Confederacy whose motto is "Loyalty to the truth of Confederate History." They are open to the bona fide students of the public schools. Through the very fine co-operation of the Superintendent and teachers in the schools there were approximately 400 students participating in the contests last year. Rules for the contests follow: United Daughters of Confederacy.

I went out on Grenada Lake Monday afternoon. Sort of duck hunting-fishing. There were thousands of ducks on the lake, but they were congregated right out in the middle, and it was impossible to kill any of them out there, legally. A good many limit kills were reported out there Monday morning.

Rail oddities

AN EARLY RAILROAD IN TEXAS--THE 23-MILE BARTLETT WESTERN--WAS CALLED "THE ROAD OF THE APOSTLES." STATIONS ALONG THE LINE WERE NAMED ST. MATTHEW, ST. MARK, ST. LUKE AND ST. JOHN, AND COPIES OF THE FOUR GOSPELS WERE PLACED ON THE WALL OF EACH WAITING ROOM.

75 YEARS AGO THE PULLMAN COMPANY HAD TWO SPECIAL CARS THAT COULD BE LEASED BY HUNTING AND FISHING PARTIES. THEY WERE EQUIPPED WITH FOOD, BEVERAGES, COOKS AND WAITERS... EVEN KENNELS FOR THE DOGS. ONE CAR BORE THE NAME ISAAC WALTON, THE OTHER DAVY CROCKETT.

OF HIS FIRST RIDE ON A RAILROAD TRAIN (IN APRIL 1834) CONGRESSMAN DAVY CROCKETT WROTE: "THIS WAS A CLEAN NEW SIGHT TO ME; ABOUT A DOZEN BIG STAGES HUNG ONTO ONE MACHINE... BY AND BY SHE BEGAN TO TAKE SHORT BREATHS, AND AWAY WE WENT WITH A BLUE STREAK AFTER US."

MISSISSIPPI MEN AGAIN HEAD TWO-STATE OIL & GAS GROUP

VICKSBURG, Miss. — Three Mississippi men were re-elected to the principal officer positions of the Mississippi-Alabama Division, Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, during the organization's eleventh annual membership meeting here on October 27 and 28.

Named to a second one-year term were President E. L. Brunini, prominent Vicksburg attorney, and First Vice President E. A. Vaughn, independent oil producer of Jackson.

Also re-elected by the association was E. D. (Doug) Kenna of Jackson, who has served as Executive Vice President and director of the association's Jackson headquarters since 1945.

Elected to the newly created offices of Secretary and Treasurer were Miss Melvin Ellis and William E. Spell, both of Jackson and employees of the association.

Area Officers

The 1956 slate of area vice presidents includes John Calton, independent oil operator of Natchez; James L. Duffy, Birmingham independent; Dennis Granberry, president of the Laurel Oil and Fertilizer Company, Laurel; Attorneys Robert Lee Jones of Brookhaven and Frank Montague, Jr. of Hattiesburg; J. Finley McRae, president of the Merchants National Bank, Mobile; and Russ M. Johnson, vice president of the Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, Jackson.

Named to membership on the association Board of Directors were Earl E. Brown, Magnolia Petroleum Company, Dallas; Harry X. Bay, The Texas Company, New Orleans; Tom Caldwell, Humble Oil and Refining Company, Hattiesburg; Dee Davis, the California Company, New Orleans; George Gardiner Green, Central Oil Company, Laurel; B. W. Haywood, Gulf Refining Company, Jackson; R. M. Hearin, Union Producing Company, Jackson; George C. Wallace, First National Bank, Jackson; and W. M. Vaughn of Jackson, independent oil pro-

Vital Industry

The Mississippi-Alabama Division, organized in 1944, is one of several area divisions making up the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association. Represented among the association's membership are all phases of the oil and gas industry. Members of the Mississippi-Alabama Division, according to Executive Vice President E. D. Kenna, are responsible for nearly all of the work done to date in the development of Mississippi's oil and natural gas resources.

At the Vicksburg meeting, oilmen pointed to the growing importance of Mississippi to their industry, and to the beneficial effect of their work on the general economy of the state. They estimate that in 1955 their expenditures for drilling, leases and royalties, payrolls, local purchases and taxes will pour about $100 million into the channels of Mississippi trade. Cumulative oil and gas industry expenditures in Mississippi total well over one billion dollars.

Notables on Program

The two day membership meeting of the Mississippi-Alabama Division, Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, at Vicksburg featured four Mississippi leaders who have attained national or international prominence.

Pronouncing invocations at major meeting functions were the Right Reverend Monsignor Joseph B. Brunini, J.C.D., V.G., pastor of St. Peter's Church in Jackson and president of the Catholic Hospital Association of the United States and Canada; and Tom Q. Ellis of Jackson, clerk of the Mississippi Supreme Court and international head of the Masonic Order.

Delivering the principal addresses of the meeting were Jackson Mayor Allen C. Thompson, president of the American Municipal Association; and W. M. Vaughn, independent oil producer of Jackson who is serving his second one-year term as president of the 13,000-member Independent Petroleum Association of America.

For '56

New Sweep-ahead styling New Sizzle to match

WHAT YOU SEE pictured here is Buick for 1956—and from the gleam of that "V" grille to the sassy slant of the tail fins, you can see it has no equal for gorgeous good looks.

But what you see from the curb is fully matched by what you feel at the wheel—and that's gospel.

For this Buick gets its zoom from a mighty 322-cubic-inch V8 engine lofted to a new record high in power and compression—and from a spectacular new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

What's new in the '56 Dynaflo is this: in the first inch of pedal travel—and not with wide-open throttle—your Buick moves from standstill to cruise with silk-smooth, instant and certain getaway.

But comes a sudden need for safety-surge action to get out of a tight spot—and you floor the pedal to switch the pitch of this airplane-inspired transmission. Instantly and smoothly, you're at full-power acceleration—a thrill beyond words.

Cotton Surpluses Plus Cotton Surpluses (Editoriallette - Mrs. W. W. W.)

Latest news on the farm is the bumper cotton crop. This is not considered good news, this is considered very bad - and too, all this, after a painstaking program of cutting back already cut back cotton acreage.

This bumper crop really is regarded as a calamity because these surpluses will hold down cotton prices. Consumers are unlikely to benefit, because the Federal Government is required to prevent any sharp decline in prices through use of price support loans, which usually means federal outright purchase. The farmer is hurt and the tax payers are footing a $60 million dollar bill for storing farm surpluses annually.

Every decent person is shocked at destroying surpluses, and we wager that every thinking person would be pleased if the federal government would take surplus cotton, weave it into sheets, blankets, overalls, towels, curtains, undergarments, and give or sell these cheap, to the underprivileged living here in rural America. This would not cost as much as the storage of surpluses. Personally I know of many poor white and Negro citizens who need all the above named articles. They have never had sufficient clothing. Why do we Americans feel that the underprivileged of Europe need more comforts than our own people do?

If an emergency program is needed think first of our own, "charity begins at home."

Can You Fight Off Flu on the Job?

No, in fact, it is highly important to stay in bed from the time you catch influenza until you are completely recovered and the danger of complications is past. Most of the half million Americans who are believed to have died of influenza in the epidemic of 1918-1919 were actually killed by the complication of pneumonia.

Your doctor can provide you with effective help in preventing influenza and with lifesaving care during illness. We can fill any of your prescriptions promptly.
